

Designed for Good	Damaged by Evil	Restored for Better	Sent together to heal
Thesis
We lived under God's leadership	We rejected God' leadership	God starts a resistance movement against evil	Jesus calls us to live under God's leadership
Enjoy God as source of life	Separate from source of life, experience death	God starts a resistance movement against evil	Jesus connects us back to the source of life
Collaborate with God's creative intentions	Work against his creative intentions	God starts a resistance movement against evil	Collaborate with creative intentions, by joining resistance movement against evil
The Work of God and Christ
Description: No damage	Description God holds us responsible for the damage	Jesus work on the Cross	Our response to the Cross
		Identifies with us	Identify with him
		Owens our consequences: Forgiveness and a new start	Own his cross: Participation and forgiveness
		Overcomes death and damage	Overcome death and damage: Power
Bigger Level
World was designed to take care of us and we were to take care of the world and serve the world	We use the world for our own benefit and damage it	Jesus has power to restore the damaged world	We are called to heal the world
Relational Level
Serve each other, freedom to love, no shame	Harmfully use people instead of serving, shame occurs with suspicion, hatred	Jesus has power to restore damaged relationships	We are called to heal relationships
Personal Level
Our view of God is untainted	Our view of God is warped	Jesus shows us that God is good	We respond to God
Relationship characterized by trust and living under his leadership	Relationship characterized by distrust and avoidance	Jesus has power to restore our relationship with God, trust again	We trust Jesus
We could become who we were meant to be	We hurt ourselves and we never become the people we want and dream to be	We have hope of becoming who we were created to be	We become the good we want to see in the world
Transitions
The World is Designed for Good	The World and we are Damaged by Evil	Jesus came to restore the world and everything in it for better	We need to become the good we see in the world